HERBST JAHRESZEIT / FALL SEASON

THE BEST FALL ACTIVITIES CELEBRATED IN GERMANY

Halloween for adults

Halloween, known as an American celebration, is actually a Celtic one dating back centuries. October 31 marked for the Celts the end of summer and beginning of the dark season. It was believed that the boundary between the living and the dead disappeared. People donned scary masks to drive away the evil spirits of darkness. For decades now, celebrating Halloween has gained popularity in Germany.

Halloween for kids

While grown-up have bonfires and throw parties, kids go to parks and zoos, where Halloween decorations abound, like here in "Europa Park," Germany's biggest amusement park. Kids also go door-to-door collecting sweets, like they do in the US.
