Nürnberg / Nuremberg

Let's go to the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt!

Nuremberg originals

At the Christkindlesmarkt you can find many Nuremberg originals. For example the "Nürnberger Zwetschgenmännla", a figure made of dried plums. It is sold with the Franconian saying, among other things: "Willsd an, der di ned ärchem ko, nou kaffsder hald an Zwetschgermoo" which translated means: "If you want someone with whom you can never get cross, buy a Zwetschgenmann (plum man)."

Golden symbol

Tinsel angels are the symbol of the Nuremberg Christmas market and are very popular as tree decorations. According to legend, it was designed by a Nuremberg doll maker. When his daughter was lying deadly ill in bed, he heard the flapping of an angel's wings. The tinsel angels used to be made of beaten brass, but now they are made of aluminum foil.
