Christmas market: der Weihnachtsmarkt, die Weihnachtsmärkte

Where are Christmas markets around Germany already opening? (2022)

In Hamburg the Wandsbeker Winterzauber has been in full swing since November 4th, as has the ‘Weihnachts-Rummel’ along Berlin’s Frankfurter Allee.

In the Ruhr region, people like to get off to a particularly early start. Duisburg is followed on November 11th by Oberhausen with its “Bergweihnachtsmarkt,” “Santa’s Village” and “Wichtelmarkt,” and on November 12th by Essen’s 50th International Christmas Market.

Other cities in North Rhine-Westphalia, such as Bochum, Dortmund and Düsseldorf, will start their Christmas markets on November 17th, with Bonn trailing close behind for an opening on November 18th.

Hamburg’s Santa Pauli Christmas market on the Reeperbahn will also light up its many holiday huts from November 14th.

Visitors to Hamburg’s newly opened Christmas market toast with Glühwein.
