OCTOBER 3—DAY OF GERMAN UNITY

HOW TO CELEBRATE GERMAN UNITY DAY NATIONWIDE

Hanover

Where: Marktplatz

When: October 3rd and 4th from 11am

Hanover is celebrating 25 years of German unity along with its Fall Festival, which features jazz and swing music, as well as a flea market and special German Unity event at the town hall.

Bonn

People in Bonn celebrate in 2011, when the city hosted the national German Unity day celebrations.

Where: Haus der Geschichte der Bundesrepublik Deutschland (House of the German Republic's History)

When: October 3rd at 10.30am

As the former provisional capital of West Germany during the time of the Iron Curtain, Bonn represents the site where many important decisions happened that led to eventual reunification - and the city's eventual unseating as capital to Berlin.

While the main parties are taking place in Frankfurt and Berlin, Bonn is throwing a more low-key bash with a Museum Fest to celebrate unity. There will be free exhibits, a discussion session where people can share their memories about October 3rd and a concert at 6pm.
