

Martin Luther (der 10. November 1483—der 2. Februar 1546)

The life of Martin Luther in pictures
Luther Museum in Wittenberg

This is currently the world's largest museum relating to the Reformation. It is also home to the famous Luther chamber, where Luther sat and chatted to students, friends and travelers. The exhibition features many portraits of Luther. It is also home to a wedding portrait showing both him and his wife Katharina von Bora, a former nun who managed the household.

Luther Memorial in Worms

In 1521 Luther defended his teachings before the emperor Charles V of the Holy Roman Empire and the Diet of Worms. He was declared an outlaw and his literature was banned. The memorial in Worms shows that Luther had supporters as his statue is surrounded by fellow campaigners and pioneers of the Reformation. It is regarded as the world's largest reformation monument.
