

„Bei uns ist immer etwas los!“

DEUTSCHE FEIERTAGE, FESTE, UND MESSEN

10 WAYS TO YOU KNOW IT'S SPRING IN GERMANY

Eating ice cream outside while still bundled up in coats and scarves - and sunglasses firmly in place. You might not be in the Alps, but take a scoopful, turn your face to the sun and it can feel pretty special.

Fair-weather cyclists bring their bikes out of the cellars and dust them down. A flat tyre, worn-down brake pad or cranky gears can lead to a rushed bike-shop visit. Yeah, you and seemingly a million others, leading to queues which on sunny Saturdays can stretch up the road.