TEN SPECTACULAR SPRING GETAWAYS IN SWITZERLAND

For wine lovers

The northern flanks of Lake Geneva offer one of the most stunning landscapes in Switzerland, with vineyards rising steeply from the water. The Lavaux vineyard terraces are Unesco-world heritage and the 10-kilometre hike between the picturesque villages of St Saphorin and Lutry is a perfect introduction to the area. The fact that there are plenty of wines to try along the way doesn't hurt either.

For scenery lovers

Diminutive Madulain in Switzerland's stunning (and often sun-soaked) Engadine valley was recently added to the official list of the 33 most beautiful villages in Switzerland. Madulain, which is home to just 220 people, was given the nod because of its intact village centre. Combined with the scenery of the Engadine, it's a recipe for pleasure.
