6 REASONS GERMANY'S SUMMER IS BEST FOR THRILL-SEEKERS

Hang-gliding in the Alps

Hang-gliding is another sport which requires serious training - and an aviation licence - before one can embark out into the wild on one's own.

But there are many opportunities to learn in Germany with over 200 authorized schools across the country.

The sport is most popular in the Alpine region, and these human birds are a common sight in the valleys around Garmisch in the summer time.
