10 BRILLIANT WAYS TO CELEBRATE SWISS NATIONAL DAY

6. Rhine Falls

Rhine Falls

Ok, it's the day before, but if you can get there, seeing the fireworks over Europe's biggest waterfall tonight, July 31st, is bound to be a treat. Free to attend.

7. Lausanne

The city's celebrations culminate in a huge fireworks display down at Ouchy on the lake front at 10.15pm. That's preceded by a ceremony and children's parade earlier in the evening. Start your day with an August 1st picnic in the park on the esplanade at Montbenon.

9. Any Swiss village

National day events aren't only held in the big cities. Many villages across the country hold their own festivities with food stalls, music, street parties and fireworks. Go to a street party in Zermatt, have brunch in Gstaad, see fireworks in Leukerbad... today, Switzerland is your oyster.
