Leonhardifahrt, November 7th in Bad Tölz

Riders decked out in traditional dress on November 6th, 2021 for the Leonhardifahrt.

Every year on November 6th (or 7th when the day falls on a Sunday) thousands of people gather in the streets and alleys of Bavarian Bad Tölz amid a soundscape of clattering hooves and cheerful voices. Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage tradition, the Leonhardifahrt (Leonhardi ride) describes one of the most beautiful and oldest horse pilgrimages in Germany. The ride starts with a blessing at 9am and finishes by 4pm along the banks of the Isar River.
