

DER MONAT NOVEMBERUNMISSABLE EVENTS IN GERMANY THIS NOVEMBER*Ludwigsburg Pumpkin Festival, ongoing throughout November

The gardens of Ludwigsburg Castle are home to a unique, hidden treasure: the world's largest pumpkin exhibition. It may sound like a niche market, but even those who aren't particularly enthusiastic about pumpkins can enjoy the towering sculptures made from 450,000 pumpkins of 6000 varieties. Artists bring to life thousands of pumpkins, with puss in boots, Medusa and a unicorn among many others transforming the park into a fairytale pumpkin kingdom.

Münchner Bücherschau, November 14th – December 4th

The Frankfurt Book Fair might be Germany's most well-known literary festival and trade fair but if you missed it, the 63rd annual Münchner Bücherschau at Munich's Literaturhaus also boasts a sprawling selection of new literary and non-fiction works as well as talks and signings by authors themselves. Particularly notable is the number of new works and events for kids and families.
