Hamburg Winterdom Festival

Winterdom festival features activities for all ages.

The largest folk festival in northern Germany began in early November and will continue until December 8th this year. The Hamburg DOM festival occurs three times throughout the year (winter, spring, and summer), but the Winterdom is very special. The winter edition will showcase fair rides, carnival games, and a special fireworks show every Friday.

The festival is free entry and takes place next to the famous St. Pauli Stadium. The tradition began in 1948 and has run continuously ever since. Just as exciting as the carnival activities is the wide variety of food to choose from at the festival. Snack on everything from Bratwurst and Currywurst to traditional dishes, including the Schmalzkuchen, or “lard cakes,” which is similar to a donut but smaller and square-shaped.
