

WAS ESSEN DIE DEUTSCHEN? / WHAT DO THE GERMANS EAT?

10 DELICIOUS FOODS YOU HAVE TO TRY WHILE LIVING IN GERMANY

10. Krabbensalat

Our final stop on this culinary zigzag through Germany is the northwest coast and the city of Hamburg. Naturally, what marks Germany's famous port town out is its fresh fish - and one treat particular to the Hanseatic city is Krabbensalat (crab salad).

This dish is common to much of north Germany. It can be prepared in a number of ways and can include shrimp or crab. But the Hamburger variety is to be recommended, and it is very simple. The fresh crab meat is mixed with lemon juice and dill, and that's it.