Why Austrians really hate “The Sound of Music”

Countless historical inaccuracies

Aside for the aforementioned shocker, there are many elements of the film that bend the truth of the real story of the Von Trapp family. For example, Maria was never a nun and Georg didn't in fact hire her to be a governess, but to be a teacher for his daughter.

Leopoldskron Castle, Salzburg City

Schloss Leopoldskron, where scenes representing the lakefront terrace and gardens of the von Trapp villa were filmed

The Sound of Music gazebo at Hellbrunn Palace in Salzburg was moved here from its original location at Schloss Leopoldskron.
