

VON TRAPP FAMILY

Johannes von Trapp (1939 to)

Johannes von Trapp (born 17 January 1939) is an Austrian American singer and former member of the Trapp Family Singers, whose lives were the inspiration for the musical and movie The Sound of Music.^[1] He is the tenth and youngest child.^[2]

Johannes: A graduate of Dartmouth, with a master's degree in forestry from Yale, he is now president of the von Trapp Family Lodge, Inc., and has two children.

Johannes Georg (born in 1939) graduated from Dartmouth, has a master's degree in forestry (Yale) and is now president of the Trapp Family Lodge. He has two children.

Johannes Von Trapp

Birth - 17th January 1939

Death

- Still alive

Parents - Maria Von Trapp and Georg Von Trapp

Married - Lynne Peterson

Children - 1 son and 1 daughter

Job - Manages the Trapp family resort in Stowe, Vermont

Random Fact - He works with his son to manage the Trapp Family Lodge.

Spouse (1)

Lynne Alice Peterson

(1969 - ?) (2 children)

Johannes von Trapp

Born	17 January 1939 Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, U.S.
Alma mater	Dartmouth College
Occupation	Singer
Spouse(s)	Lynne Peterson
Children	2
Parent(s)	Georg von Trapp Maria von Trapp

Johannes von Trapp

Son of Maria von Trapp and Captain Georg Ludwig von Trapp.

Father of Sam Edward von Trapp (b. 1972) and Maria Kristina von Trapp (b. 1970).

Brother of Eleonore von Trapp Campbell and Rosemarie von Trapp and younger half-brother of Rupert, Agathe, Maria Franziska, Werner, Hedwig, Johanna and Martina von Trapp.

By 1969, he had graduated from Dartmouth College. He attended the Yale University's School of Forestry for his Master's degree. He returned to Stowe, Vermont, to help with the family inn's finances, and then became the manager of the resort. In 1977, he moved to British Columbia, and later to a ranch in Montana. He eventually returned to manage the family business in Vermont.

Sam von Trapp

Kristina von Trapp