

DEUTSCHER LEBENSTIL UND DEUTSCHE KULTUR
(Austrian Lifestyle and Culture)*“Sound of Music Tour ” in Salzburg*FIVE MORE SALZBURG SOUND OF MUSIC SITES*MIRABELL GARDENS

A beautifully manicured park where Maria and the children sing Do-Re-Mi.

ZWERGLGARTEN

Adjacent to the Mirabell Gardens is the "Dwarf Gnome Garden", home to a series of somewhat grotesque gnome statues, supposedly based on real dwarfs that served in the court of the city's archbishop in the 17th Century. The garden also features in Do-Re-Mi.

GAZEBO AT HELLBRUNN PALACE

The gazebo for the Sixteen Going on Seventeen scene of the the film has been moved numerous times but has been at Hellbrunn since 1997. It's now locked after too many visitors injured themselves trying to leap from seat to seat as Liesl does in the film.

ST PETER'S CEMETERY

Although not actually seen in the film, the scenes in which the family hide from the Nazis were on a Hollywood set that is based on this cemetery near the centre of town.

ST MICHAEL'S CHURCH

Outside Salzburg in the gorgeous village of Mondsee is the church where the wedding of Maria and Georg was filmed.
