Charmian Carr (Liesl von Trapp)

She never seriously acted ever again. Perhaps it's because neither she nor any of her child co-stars made a penny from the film's profits or from the soundtrack, the most successful of all time. However, she insisted that The Sound of Music made her “wealthy spiritually.” She did release a bestseller book, Forever Liesl. In her late forties, Charmian Carr suffered a bout of depression. (<https://doyouremember.com/128437/whatever-happened-to-charmian-carr>) In addition, she developed phobias of both elevators and of flying. Sadly, Charmian died in 2016 from complications of dementia at the age of 73.
