Villa Trapp Salzburg

The Real von Trapp Family House

Similarly, the "real" Trapp Villa in the posh area of Aigen was beyond reach for "The Sound of Music"-savy crowds. This was due to be changed in summer 2008, when the "Sound of Music Villa" - despite of not featuring in the movie at all - was announced to be transformed into a small hotel and wedding venue. Not the first sudden move in the turbulent history of the villa. These plans were withdrawn only a few months later due to protests of local residents who feared the crowds of tourists.
